On Saturday, March 21, the Parkers Prairie High School speech team travelled to Melrose for competition. It was the largest in-person tournament the team participated in this season, with forty schools and six hundred twenty speakers facing off. Cracking the tournament Championship Final or the Honor Final was incredibly challenging and was indicative of the individual speaker's chances at making the State Tournament. The highlights were having three speakers qualify for the Championship round- Mya Adickes, Izzy Langager, and Jayme O'Brien- and nine students qualified in Honors or Merit Finals. Rebecca Ahlers won the Heart and Soul Award for her dedication and hard work this season. Also, Samara Price won Top Novice in Drama. Overall, the team finished in 4th place, an outstanding finish considering the competition.
